This thorough exploration of watercolor painting offers instruction and opportunities for practice in basic wet and dry techniques, washes, blends and use of transparency. Students will explore and practice with a variety of special techniques for solving texture and masking problems.

Artist Level: This class is for all artistic levels

Beginning students will concentrate on how to paint with watercolor and will learn how to apply the fundamentals of art and painting to their own watercolor paintings.

Experienced students will concentrate on composition, technical skills, paint consistency and color development in their own watercolor paintings.

Those students wanting to explore and improve their gouache skills are welcome.

Instructed by Rick Brogan
